

These General Terms and Conditions (“Terms and Conditions”) apply in respect of an agreement between URENCO Limited or URENCO UK Limited (the “Company”) and you (the “Contractor”), which may, by way example, be in the form of a purchase order or a work statement (the “Agreement”). These Terms and Conditions are binding between the Company and the Contractor and supersede and replace any Contractor terms and conditions or previous agreements for the provision of the Goods and Services in scope. In the event that any special terms are agreed between the parties, those special terms shall take precedence over the terms contained in these Terms and Conditions. Where these Terms and Conditions are attached to or incorporated into a purchase order or work statement issued under an existing contract, the terms and conditions of that existing contract shall prevail.

1. Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

“Affiliate” means, in reference to a Person, any other Person that: (a) directly or indirectly controls or is controlled by the first Person; or (b) is directly or indirectly controlled by a Person that also directly or indirectly controls the first Person; and, for the purposes of this definition, a Person controls another Person if such Person has the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the other Person, whether directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries or otherwise, and whether by ownership of shares or other equity interests, the holding of voting rights or contractual rights, by being the general partner of a limited partnership, or otherwise;

“Anti-Bribery Laws” means the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 and the United Kingdom Bribery Act 2010 (as amended from time to time) and all other applicable national, regional, provincial, state, municipal or local laws and regulations that prohibit the bribery of, or the providing of unlawful gratuities, facilitation payments or other benefits to, any government official or any other person;

“Background Information” means any information or data proprietary to the Contractor, or licensed to the Contractor with the right to grant sublicenses to third parties, which are created independently of the performance of the Services as can be adequately proved by the Contractor, from which the Services or any Work Product is derived, or which are otherwise required for the effective exploitation of any Work Product;

“Company Information” means any information which is disclosed to the Contractor by or on behalf of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company in connection with the Agreement, including, without limitation, any information about the business of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company;

“Contract Representative” means the person nominated by the Company, and notified to the Contractor as the Company Site representative who is authorised to oversee the Services to be carried out on Site on a day to day basis and make all operational decisions relating to the performance of the Services on the Site and who at the date of this Agreement is named in the Purchase Order;

“Contractor Personnel” means any individual employed or supplied by Contractor whether directly or indirectly and assigned to work in connection with the performance of the Agreement whether or not an employee of Contractor, and includes any subcontractor(s) of the Contractor and their personnel;

- (b) earthquake, flood, fire, named cyclone/hurricane/typhoon, tidal wave, tsunami, explosion and/or other natural physical disaster, but excluding weather conditions as such regardless of severity;
- (c) changes to any general or local statute, ordinance, decree, or other law, or any regulation or by-law of any local or other duly constituted authority or the introduction of any such statute, ordinance, decree, law, regulation or by-law;

“Good Industry Practice” means the exercise of that degree of skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would reasonably and ordinarily be expected to be exercised by a skilled and experienced operator engaged in the same type of undertaking under the same or similar circumstances and conditions as the Contractor;

“Goods” means the goods set out in the Purchase Order to be provided by Contractor to Company in accordance with the Agreement;

“Intellectual Property Rights” means any patents, copyright, including software, documentation, designs, visual materials in whatever form, sound recordings, any copyright protectable work, designs, trade or service marks, semiconductor topography rights, database rights, rights in knowhow, moral rights or other similar rights in any country, in each case whether or not registered, and any applications for registration of any of the foregoing, and all rights to apply to register any of the foregoing;

“Person” means any individual, entity, partnership, limited partnership, firm, trust, body corporate, company, corporation, government, governmental body, agency or instrumentality, unincorporated body of persons, or association;

“Price” means the amount in the relevant currency specified in the Purchase Order as the price for the Goods and/or the Services;

“Purchase Order” means the Company’s purchase order concerning the Goods and/or Services to be delivered under this Agreement, with a unique identifying number. The Purchase Order unique identification number must be quoted on all Contractors’ invoices for the Goods and/or the Services delivered to the Company in order for payment to occur;

“Related Party” means in relation to a party: (a) any of its Affiliates; (b) any person employed by that party or its Affiliates; (c) any director or other officer of that party or its Affiliates; and (d) any person acting for or on behalf of that party or its Affiliates;

“Scope” means the scope, and any and all relevant portions thereof as the context dictates, that the Contractor is required to supply in accordance with the Agreement, including the delivery of the Goods and/or the performance of the Services (as applicable);

“Services” means the services set out in the Purchase Order which are to be provided by the Contractor to the Company in accordance with the Agreement;

“Site” means all the lands at the Company’s site at Capenhurst, Chester, on, under, in or through which the Scope, Services or activities in connection with the Scope or the Services are to be supplied; or as indicated on the Purchase Order;

“Work Product” means the Goods and any and all results, conclusions and findings of the Services including all Intellectual Property Rights which are generated by or otherwise derived from the results, conclusions and findings;

1.2 In these Terms and Conditions, words denoting the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

2. Provision of Goods and/or Services; Warranty; Remedies; Title and Risk

2.1 Without prejudice to any representations or warranties which are applied by law or otherwise given by the Contractor, the Contractor warrants that the Goods shall be: (a) free from defect; (b) fit for their intended purpose or application; (c) manufactured and supplied strictly in accordance with the relevant specification; and (d) free of any registered or unregistered charge, lien, mortgage or other encumbrance. Services shall be provided with all due skill and care and in accordance with Good Industry Practice. The Contractor will pass through any applicable manufacturer’s warranty to the benefit of the Company. If any such manufacturer’s warranty is not assignable, the Contractor shall assist the Company in pursuing any warranty claim with the manufacturer on the Company’s behalf. The warranty for the Goods commences on the latter of the day that the Company takes physical possession of the Goods or the Goods have been installed by the Contractor and is valid for the longer of twelve (12) months or the length of the Contractor’s or the manufacturer’s standard warranty period. The warranty for Services commences on the day of completion of the Services and is valid for twelve (12) months following completion of the Services. The Contractor shall operate a quality assurance system in accordance with industry recommended standards and practices. The Contractor further warrants that the Contractor’s use of the Background Information shall be free from any challenges by any Person that such use violates or infringes an Intellectual Property Right of any Person.

2.2 The Contractor and the Contractor Personnel shall: (a) comply with all applicable laws and government rules, regulations and orders, including, but not limited to, those related to health, safety and the environment, employment rights and data protection; and (b) perform its obligations under the Agreement in such a way as to ensure that there is no breach of the of the terms of URENCO UK Limited’s nuclear site licence. The Contractor shall obtain at its own cost the required permits and shall provide the Company with such data as is reasonably requested by the Company in relation thereto. The Contractor must, to the maximum extent permitted by law, defend, hold harmless and indemnify the Company, its members, and all Affiliates of Company, and its and their directors, officers, employees, and agents from and against any and all claims, proceedings, lawsuits, judgments, liabilities, losses, damages, costs (including legal costs and attorneys' fees), fines, penalties, assessments and expenses incurred or suffered as a result of non-compliance with laws or the failure to obtain permits by the Contractor or by Contractor Personnel.

The Contractor confirms that it has obtained all requisite information for the performance of the Agreement, in particular, but not limited to, as to the Company site, access and egress, and transportation thereto, local conditions and facilities, and any other relevant matters of whatever nature. The Contractor will attend any induction training as may be required by the Company or its Affiliates from time to time.

2.3 Without prejudice to any other rights of the Company hereunder or at law, in the event of defective Goods and/or Services or any breach of warranty, notwithstanding that such defect or breach may have been discovered by the Company after delivery or performance, the Company, in its sole discretion and at the Contractor's risk and expense, may do any or all of the following: (a) terminate the relevant Agreement at any time; (b) reject and return the Goods; (c) purchase equivalent goods elsewhere; (d) require the Goods to be replaced or repaired by the Contractor; (e) require the Services to be re-performed by the Contractor; (f) have defects in the Goods repaired by others; (g) have the Services re-performed by others. The warranty for Goods replaced or repaired by the Contractor commences on the latter of the day that the Company takes physical possession of the Goods or the Goods have been installed by Contractor and is valid for the longer of twelve (12) months or the length of the Contractor's or the manufacturer's standard warranty period. The warranty for Services re-performed by the Contractor commences on the day of completion of the re-performed Services and is valid for twelve (12) months following completion of the re-performed Services.

2.4 Any inspection by the Company of the Goods or the Services shall not relieve the Contractor of any obligations of liability under the Agreement.

2.5 The Contractor will retain risk of loss of and damage to the Goods until the Company takes physical possession, or care and custody of the Goods. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Contractor will retain risk of loss of and/or damage to the Goods: (a) supplied as part of the Services until acceptance of the Services by the Company, unless the Company takes care and custody of the Goods and (b) which are rejected by the Company as not in compliance with the Purchase Order. Title to the Goods will pass to the Company (a) along with the passing of risk of loss of and/or damage to Goods to the Company or (b) as the Company makes payment for the Goods, whichever occurs earlier. Any transfer of title or risk will be without prejudice to the Company's right to refuse to accept the Goods in case of non-conformity with the requirements of the Agreement.

2.6 The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that it has no title to or property in the Company Information or any Company materials and that no title or property in the Company Information or in any Company materials will pass to the Contractor.

When Company Information and Company materials are in the Contractor's possession, custody or control, the Contractor shall: (a) keep the Company Information and Company materials separate from any similar items owned by the Contractor or any third party and (b) ensure that the Company Information and Company materials are properly stored and protected and identified as the Company's property;

3. HSSE, Site Procedures and Access

3.1 Whenever Contractor Personnel are on Site they shall behave in a manner which is consistent with the Company's requirements for the management of health, safety, security, and the environment set forth herein, in addition to any other requirements set forth in any Purchase Order, as well as any related rules, procedures or codes of practice (whether issued by the Company, Affiliates of the Company, or otherwise) in force at the relevant Site.

3.2 The Contractor is solely responsible for determining the nature and scope of the health, safety, security and environmental risks associated with the work of the Contractor and the Contractor Personnel in connection with the Agreement. The Contractor assumes all responsibility and liability for all such risks. The Contractor and the Contractor Personnel shall perform the Scope and/or Services without interfering with the operations of the Company or any Affiliates of the Company or of any other contractors at the Site.

3.3 The Contractor shall ensure that all Contractor Personnel on Site shall comply with all rules, procedures or codes of practice (whether issued by the Company, Affiliates of the Company, or otherwise) in force for the time being at that Site and with any special regulations which apply to any particular building or area (including any radiation controlled area) within the boundaries of that Site, as notified to the Contractor from time to time.

3.4 The Contractor shall implement all security procedures required by the Company and the costs of complying with them, including loss of time by staff, workmen and vehicles, the issue and examination of passes and security searches and checks undertaken prior to entry, on entry to and upon exit from a Site, shall be included in the Price.

3.5 The Contractor shall ensure that all Contractor Personnel have the necessary security clearances required (as determined by the Company) in order to provide the Goods and perform the Services and that Contractor Personnel do not enter any part of the Site that they do not have the necessary security clearance to enter.

3.6 All Contractor Personnel, including delivery drivers, must have a photo identification to obtain access to Site. Without this drivers cannot make deliveries and Contractor Personnel cannot access the Site to perform the Services and shall be turned away from the Site at the Contractor's sole cost and risk.

3.7 Access to Site - All vehicular access shall be from the A41 (Great Sutton) onto Capenhurst Lane (30mph speed limit). The Contractor and all Contractor Personnel will not travel via "Dunkirk Lane" off the B5117, through "Capenhurst Village" which is off the A540, via "Chapel Lane" off the A540 or via "Ledsham Lane leading onto Rectory Lane" off the A550.

4. Price and Payment

4.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing with the Company, the Price: (a) is fixed and is not subject to any increased cost as a result of currency or duty fluctuations; (b) is inclusive of all requirements including, without limitation, all packing, labelling, customs, freight, transportation and import or export duties or charges, insurance and other applicable costs and charges, and; (c) is exclusive of VAT unless otherwise stated in the Purchase Order and any applicable VAT shall be paid by the Company at the prevailing rate prescribed by applicable law.

4.2 The Contractor shall invoice the Price following delivery and send such invoice as per Clause 4.6. The Company shall pay all invoiced amounts by the end of the month following the month in which the Company receives the Contractors correctly rendered invoice. If the payment due date falls on a day which is not a business day, then the payment due date shall be the first business day following the payment due date.

4.3. The Company may reasonably dispute the legal validity, accuracy or correctness of the invoice and may withhold payment on the disputed portion (including on the entire portion, where the legal validity of the entire invoice is disputed) until the dispute is resolved.

4.4 Invoices shall be in such form and be accompanied by such information as the Company may reasonably require in order to verify the entitlement to payment.

4.5 For Services, the Contractor shall obtain a service entry number (SEN) from the Company prior to submitting the invoice, which is to be quoted on the invoice and which is approval for payment.

4.6 Invoices should be emailed to fssc@urencocom in a portable document format which is attached to the covering email; the email subject line should contain the Purchase Order number, the invoice number and the Contractor's name.

5. Liability and Insurance

5.1 Liability for loss and damage to property and for personal injury, including death and disease to any Person, arising in connection with the Agreement shall be determined in accordance with applicable law.

5.2 Neither party shall be liable to the other party under or in connection with the Agreement for: (a) consequential or indirect losses or damages at law; or (b) loss of revenue, profit or anticipated profit, and loss of business or opportunity, whether or not such losses were foreseeable at the time of entering into the Agreement, arising from or related to the performance of the Agreement.

5.3 Without limitation of its obligations and its responsibilities, the Contractor shall maintain, and shall ensure that its subcontractors maintain, for the duration of the Agreement adequate insurance to meet all the liabilities of the Contractor arising from or in connection with the Agreement. The provisions of this Clause 5.3 shall in no way limit the liability of the Contractor under the Agreement. At the request of the Company, the Contractor shall furnish appropriate certificates of insurance.

5.4 Save as provided above, the Company's liability under this Agreement shall not exceed the Price of the Goods and/or Services payable to the Contractor.

6. Termination; Suspension; Variations

6.1 The Company shall have the right immediately upon delivery to the Contractor of written notice, to order the suspension of, or any variation to, the provision of the Goods and/or Services, in whole or in part, provided that any variation shall only be effective if it is within the capability and resources of the Contractor. Save for where an Agreement Suspension is issued under Clause 6.2 in which case Clauses 6.3 and 6.4 shall apply, any increase or decrease in the cost of the Goods and/or Services resulting from the suspension or variation shall be determined by the Company in accordance with the rates and other information shown in the Agreement, or, in the absence of any appropriate rates and information; a fair and reasonable evaluation shall be made.

6.2 Without prejudice to either Party's rights under Clause 7 (Force Majeure), it is agreed that Company shall be entitled to suspend performance of the Agreement ("Agreement Suspension") from time to time upon written notice (a "Suspension Notice") to the Contractor if, in its absolute discretion, it determines that it is necessary to do so for reasons including for health and safety reasons as a result of the adverse impact or potential adverse impact of an epidemic or pandemic on Company's operations.

6.3 The Suspension Notice shall specify the date and time when Agreement Suspension shall take effect (not being earlier than the date and time of the notice). Agreement Suspension shall terminate upon written notice by Company to the Contractor. Company shall keep the Contractor informed regarding the expected duration of Agreement Suspension.

6.4 The Contractor shall take all reasonable steps to minimise and mitigate any costs, losses and expenses it may incur as a direct result of Agreement Suspension, including (without limitation):

- (a) where it is reasonably practicable and cost effective to do so, re-deploying its employees, sub-contractors and agents for the duration of Agreement Suspension, any such re-deployment to be completed as soon as possible and in any event within two weeks of the date of the Suspension Notice; and

- (b) seeking to obtain the benefit of any Government backed or other support scheme which may be available from time to time to employers in response to an epidemic or pandemic, including (without limitation) the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme (or any replacement or analogous scheme).

Upon request, the Contractor shall provide documentary evidence of all such costs, losses and expenses and the steps taken to minimise and mitigate the same, including submissions made in connection with Government support schemes and any furloughing of employees, payslips of relevant employees and information submitted to HMRC.

6.5 For the duration of any suspension, each Party's rights and obligations under the Agreement shall be suspended provided that each Party shall take appropriate measures to safeguard against any health, safety or environmental risks that may reasonably be expected to arise as a result of the suspension.

6.6 Either party has the right at any time by giving notice in writing to the other party to terminate the Agreement forthwith if the other party commits a material breach of any of the terms or conditions of the Agreement.

6.7 The Company may terminate the Agreement immediately by written notice to the Contractor, if in the Company's reasonable opinion, the Contractor or any of its Related Parties when performing work in connection with the Agreement: (a) commits any or causes the Company or any of its Related Parties to be in breach of any applicable Anti-Bribery Laws; (b) breaches Clause 10.4 of these Terms and Conditions; (c) commits any or causes the Company or any of its Related Parties to be in breach of applicable competition laws; or (d) commits a material breach of any relevant and applicable laws not mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (c) of this Clause 6.7.

6.8 The Company may terminate the Agreement without cause by giving five (5) days prior written notice of termination to the Contractor, and the Company shall only be liable to pay for that part of the Goods and/or Services provided in compliance with the terms of the Agreement prior to such date that the Contractor receives the Company's written notice to terminate.

6.9 Upon the termination or expiry of the Agreement, the Contractor shall upon request by the Company return or provide to the Company all data, information, records and/or documents, regardless in which form, related to the Company, its members, or to the Affiliates of the Company, or its or their business which the Contractor has obtained from the Company or produced in performance of the Agreement.

7. Force Majeure

7.1 A party will not be in breach of its obligations under the Agreement or otherwise be liable to the other as a result of any delay or failure in the performance of its obligations if and to the extent that any such delay or failure is directly caused by Force Majeure and is beyond the reasonable control of the party. The Company will be relieved from any obligation to make payments to the Contractor for the Goods and/or Services to be provided under the Agreement for so long as the supply of Goods and/or Services is impacted by Force Majeure.

7.2 A party whose performance of obligations under the Agreement is delayed or prevented by Force Majeure will without delay: (a) notify the other party on an ongoing basis of the nature, extent, effect and likely duration of the circumstances constituting the Force Majeure; (b) use all reasonable endeavours to minimise the effect of the Force Majeure on its performance of its obligations under the Agreement; and (c) subject to Clause 7.3, promptly, after the cessation of the Force Majeure, notify the other party thereof, provide the other with all reasonable information concerning the impact of and planned response to the Force Majeure, and promptly resume full performance of its obligations under the Agreement.

7.3 If the Contractor's performance under the Agreement is prevented, hindered or delayed by an event of Force Majeure for a period exceeding one (1) month, the Company may (in its absolute discretion) terminate the Agreement upon giving written notice of termination.

8. Confidential Information

8.1 The Contractor undertakes, and warrants that it and its Affiliates undertake: (a) to use the Company Information solely for the purpose of providing the Services and/or supplying the Goods; and (b) not, without the prior written consent of Company, to disclose the Company Information to any third party.

8.2 The provisions of Clause 8.1 shall not apply to any Company Information if the Contractor can prove that it was or has become lawfully known to the Contractor without any binding obligation of secrecy or that it is publicly available to it through no act or omission on the part of the Contractor.

8.3 At the request and option of the Company, the Contractor shall either destroy or return promptly to the Company, or its nominee, any and all records containing Company Information which are in the possession of the Contractor, Contractor Personnel or any of its Affiliates (and their personnel).

8.4 The Contractor and Contractor Personnel shall not mention/use the Company's name, the Company's trademarks or refer to the existence of the Agreement and the activities carried out under the Agreement in any publicity material or other communications to third parties without the Company's prior written consent.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

9.1 All right, title and interest in and to the Work Product and any Intellectual Property Rights shall vest exclusively in the Company and shall be assigned to the Company promptly upon creating or generating the same by the Contractor. The Contractor shall execute any and all instruments, deeds or actions necessary to vest such Intellectual Property Rights in the Company. The Contractor hereby irrevocably waives, or shall procure all necessary waivers in favour of the Company of, all Intellectual Property Rights in the Work Product.

9.2 The Contractor hereby grants to the Company a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable and worldwide license and right for the Company with sublicensing rights to possess, disclose and use and/or have possessed, disclosed or used, the Background Information or any part thereof as necessary to use, copy, modify, distribute and exploit freely any Work Product.

9.3 The Contractor shall at its own expense defend, hold harmless and indemnify the Company, its members, and all Affiliates of the Company, and its and their sub-licensees, directors, officers, employees, and agents from and against all claims, proceedings, lawsuits, judgments, liabilities, losses, damages, costs (including legal costs and attorneys' fees), fines, penalties, assessments and expenses arising out of any allegation or claim that the possession, disclosure, use by the Company, any Affiliate of Company and/or any third party under sub-license of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company of any Background Information in accordance with the license provided pursuant to Clause 9.2 or the possession, disclosure, use or exploitation of any Work Product in accordance with the Agreement infringes any Intellectual Property Rights of any Person.

10. Compliance with Anti-Bribery Laws; Internal Controls

10.1 The Contractor represents and warrants that, in connection with the Agreement or the business resulting therefrom: (a) it is knowledgeable about Anti-Bribery Laws applicable to the performance of the Agreement and that it will comply with all such laws; (b) neither it nor a Related Party have made, offered or authorised or will make, offer or authorise any payment, gift, promise or other advantage, including a facilitation payment.

10.2 The Contractor undertakes to immediately notify the Company if in connection with the Agreement or the business resulting therefrom it receives or becomes aware of any request from any Person for any payment, gift, promise or other advantage of the type mentioned in Clause 10.1(b).

10.3 The Company confirms that its appointment of the Contractor was expressly made on the basis that Anti-Bribery Laws would not be violated or breached. The Contractor acknowledges that the contents of the Agreement may be disclosed by the Company to third parties for the purposes of demonstrating compliance with this Clause.

10.4 The Contractor shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Company and its Related Parties from and against any and all losses, damages, claims, expenses, fines and penalties arising out of the Contractor's representations in this Article 10 being untrue or arising out of the Contractor's breach of any of its warranties or undertakings in this Article 10.

10.5 The Contractor and its Affiliates shall maintain adequate internal controls and procedures to assure compliance with Anti-Bribery Laws including but not limited to procedures to ensure that all transactions are accurately recorded and reported in its books and records to reflect truly and accurately the activities to which they pertain such as the purpose of each transaction and to whom it was made or from whom it was received.

11. Assignment and Subcontracting Neither the Company nor the Contractor shall assign or subcontract any of its rights and/or obligations under the Agreement in whole or in part without the prior written consent of the other, which consent the other may withhold in its sole discretion provided, however, that the Company may without such consent assign any of its rights and/or obligations under the Agreement in whole or in part to any Affiliate of the Company upon advance written notice to the Contractor and the Contractor shall execute any document required by the Company, acting reasonably, to effect same. Approval to subcontract shall not relieve the subcontracting party from any of its obligations under the Agreement, or impose any liability upon the other party to any subcontractor.

12. No Agency or Partnership

The Contractor is acting solely as an independent contractor and is not an agent or partner of the Company or of any of its members, or of any Affiliates of the Company.

13. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution This Agreement and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including any non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. The United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this Agreement. The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).

14. Notice

All notices, requests, variations, and other communications by the Company or the Contractor are to be in writing and are to be delivered promptly to the appropriate addresses named in the Agreement.

15. Third Party Beneficiaries

Where this Agreement expressly confers a benefit on an Affiliate of the Company or the Contractor who is not a party to this Agreement (each a "Third Party Beneficiary") such Third Party Beneficiary will be entitled by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce the benefits specifically conferred on it by this Agreement, provided that the consent of any Third Party Beneficiary will not be required for the variation or termination of the Agreement, even if that variation or termination affects the benefit conferred on it. Except as provided in this Clause, no term of this Agreement will be enforceable, by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, by any Person who is not a party to the Agreement.

16. Audit Rights and Record Keeping

16.1. The Contractor shall maintain, either physically or by electronic media, all books, accounts, records, original documents and information related to the Agreement in connection therewith for a period of five (5) years after the end date of this Agreement. Such records and information shall include, as a minimum, any and all invoices for payment submitted by the Contractor to the Company along with all supporting documentation. The Contractor shall ensure that its Related Parties and third party contractors comply with the requirement of this Clause 16.1.

16.2. The Company shall have the right to audit any and all information, rates and costs and expenses related to this Agreement at any time during and within five (5) years after termination of the Agreement. The Company shall have the right to reproduce and retain copies of any of the aforesaid records or information. The Contractor shall implement all agreed recommendations arising from the audits within a time scale mutually agreed with the Company.

16.3. Upon the Company's request the Contractor will, as soon as reasonably practicable, provide the Company with all records relating to the Agreement and/or any work statement in connection therewith which are created or kept by its Related Parties or by any third party contractors.

17. Miscellaneous

17.1 The Contractor and the Contractor Personnel shall not prepare photographs, articles, press releases or speeches about the existence of or the Scope of the Agreement, or any details about the Company's facilities or business plans without the prior written consent from Company.

17.2 Failure or delay by the Company in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision of the Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the Agreement.

17.3 Any waiver by the Company of any breach of, or any default under, any provision of the Agreement by the Contractor shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default and shall in no way affect the other terms of the Agreement.

17.4 The covenants, conditions and provisions contained in the Agreement which the parties intend to survive, including expressly the confidentiality obligations, intellectual property rights and liabilities, audit rights, warranties, compliance with laws and Anti-Bribery Laws, governing law, dispute resolution, and indemnities, shall survive termination and expiry of the Agreement for the benefit of the party or parties to whom they are given.

17.5 The Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any and all prior negotiations, representations or agreements related to the subject matter thereof, either written or oral. No variations to the Agreement, nor any contrary or additional conditions specified by the Contractor in any document provided by the Contractor, shall be effective unless evidenced in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

17.6 The concept of the severability of clauses applies.

17.7 The rights and remedies provided by the Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided in law, equity, or otherwise and shall extend to the Company, its successors and assigns.
